
One square = one pooled study (n = 37). Darker = more rigorous practice; grey = absent or not reported; outlined = abstract only, not assessable.